

Satellite radio should be able to broadcast whatever it wants particularly instant traffic and weather. It broadens choices to listeners.